MAJOR MARKETING CAMPAIGNS ANNUAL

One source provides a comprehensive look at the high-impact campaigns of 1997

New from Gale, Major Marketing Campaigns Annual profiles 100 of 1997's major marketing initiatives. Marketing students and researchers will find this single source saves hours of research time. They will discover hard-to-find information compiled from periodical articles, trade magazines, corporate public relations departments, marketing industry experts and more. The result is a fascinating look at the year's most outstanding marketing campaigns.

THE TOP 100 CAMPAIGNS, SELECTED BY INDUSTRY EXPERTS

An advisory board compiled of university professors and industry experts was consulted to identify the top 100 marketing initiatives profiled in Major Marketing Campaigns Annual. Cases were chosen from among domestic and international campaigns based on their relevancy in terms of social context, the consumer attention they attracted, their ability to change consumer perspective, their impact on lifestyle or the revenue the campaign generated.

WHATS BEHIND A GREAT CAMPAIGN?

From a campaign's historical environment to its conception to its results, Major Marketing Campaigns Annual provides an in-depth analysis of the many factors that come into play when a marketing initiative takes shape. Entries are arranged alphabetically by the name of the company running the campaign and include street address, e-mail, Web address, phone and fax numbers.

ENTRIES ALSO INCLUDE

• Campaign Overview: A brief overview of the campaign and its rationale, start and end dates, how it was initiated and its cost
• Brand Origins/ Historical Context: A description of factors that contributed to the campaign's development. This section also covers the marketing environment and an assessment of whether the campaign was controversial, in line with the company's previous marketing efforts, a spin-off from a predecessor and more
• Target Market and Objectives: A look at the target audience and their needs with respect to the product, service or initiative
• Competition: Major competitors, their market share and revenue
• Marketing Strategy and Development Hurdles: Strategies behind the initiative, including excerpts from business plans
• Outcome: The campaign's success or failure and its social, commercial and financial impact on the company and the market
• For Further Information: A section that directs researchers to competitors, related campaigns and relevant periodical articles

Where possible, entries include a black-and-white picture of the product or service and the advertisements. A helpful master index directs readers to entries by company name, product name, campaign name and subject. Entries are arranged alphabetically by company name.

Learn by example with this collection of actual business plans

Starting a business requires creativity, energy and innovation. Now in its 5th volume, Business Plans Handbook captures the innovative ideas and work of a wide variety of North American entrepreneurs, with a collection of their actual business plans.

This volume presents 25 sample plans taken from businesses in a wide variety of industries — only the company names and addresses have been changed. Information researchers will find type of business; statement of purpose; executive summary; business/industry description; market; product and production and management/personnel; as well as the financial specifics usually required of loan applicants, such as income statements, financial projections, cash flows and balance sheets.

NEW volume

Just like a savvy businessperson, Business Plans Handbook Vol. 5 offers new features to serve the needs of its readers. Coverage of small business resources is updated with these features:
- A directory listing of all the Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE) offices.
- A glossary of small business terms.
- A bibliography with reference titles essential to starting and operating a business venture in all 50 states.
- An updated list of Small Business Development Centers (SBDCs).
- An updated list of Small Business Administration regional offices.
- A list of venture capital and finance companies specializing in start-up funding.
- Associations and consultants geared to helping entrepreneurs.
- A business plan template.
