Encyclopedia of Science and Religion
This multidisciplinary set reaches far into the humanities as well as the physical sciences and technology. Along with controversial subjects, more traditional questions are examined.

Encyclopedia of Islam and the Muslim World
As the dominant faith across many areas of the globe, Islam is an increasingly important force in the modern world. This work contrasts today's Islam with the religion's development over the last 13 centuries.

Encyclopedia of Buddhism
In more than 400 A-to-Z entries, the Encyclopedia describes the worldview, teachings, rituals and practices of the different Buddhist sects and schools and their often charismatic founders. Features more than 150 black-and-white illustrations, 16 pages of color, a timeline and maps.

New Catholic Encyclopedia
A "substantial and authoritative update" (Associated Press, 2003) of the 1967 original, New Catholic Encyclopedia features contributions from hundreds of scholars on theology, philosophy, history and much more.

Encyclopedia of American Religions
This "standard reference work for 20 years" (Theology Digest, spring 1999) is brought up to date with coverage on more than 2,300 North American religious groups.
ISBN 0-7876-6384-0. $290.00.
