

First Library of Knowledge

New from Blackbirch Press®

NEW SERIES! FULL-COLOR Jumping off visually-rich pages, high-interest information fills the First Library of Knowledge — a new 12-title general knowledge series written especially for elementary students.

Continuing in Blackbirch Press®'s strong tradition, the First Library of Knowledge is dominated by colorful, engaging images that present content supporting the curriculum. The oversized 9" x 11.5" format allows for dramatic, detailed diagrams that clearly illustrate concepts discussed in the text, such as phases of the moon, the formation of fossils and the metamorphosis of a tadpole into a frog.

Developed for both the classroom and casual reading, this high-quality series features:

- An abundance of full-color illustrations bringing each topic to life
- Simple narrative offering clear explanations
- Concise, easy-to-manage structure
- Detailed diagrams that visually organize key information
- And more
