

MLA International Bibliography

Part of Literature Resources from Gale

With millions of citations offered by MLA International Bibliography, researchers will locate hard-to-find information on broad and narrow literary subjects.

What materials have been published on Stendhal's "The Red and the Black?" What are some good scholarly Web sites on women authors?

Access worldwide scholarship

MLA International Bibliography supports scholarly research with remote access to more than 2 million bibliographic citations to journal articles, books, articles, Web sites and dissertations from 1926 to the present. The MLA Thesaurus and MLA Directory of Periodicals are included as fully searchable and integrated tools.

What materials have been published on Stendhal's "The Red and the Black"?

- Open MLA International Bibliography, enter "The Red and the Black" in the entry box and select "Name of Work"
- Check the box to exclude dissertation abstracts
- Click on "Search" to retrieve more than 230 results
- Note that you will get the same results by searching on the title in its original French, "Le Rouge et le Noir"

What are some good scholarly Web sites on women authors?

- Open the MLA International Bibliography and enter Women Writers in the text box
- Leave the keyword radio button selected. In the "Limit results by document type" scroll box, select "Website"
- Click on "Search" to retrieve citations and links to several relevant scholarly Web sites
