

National Faculty Directory

Now online on Gale Directory Library

National Faculty Directory is a one-stop resource for names and addresses of hundreds of thousands of faculty members at more than 6,300 American and Canadian colleges and universities. This long-standing resource is among the most comprehensive faculty directory available and is perfect for students, academics and professional researchers seeking faculty contact information and departmental affiliations.

Covering institutions that use instructional materials primarily in English, each edition of National Faculty Directory features more than 900,000 members of teaching faculties. Multiple editions are available by standing order, ensuring access to the most up-to-date information as well as historical data. Entries typically include: name; mailing address; phone; name of college/university; and department. (Note: data is provided under license from MDR, a D&B Company, and is for individual lookup only and may not be exported or used for list generation.)

Real-world users might include:

- Students researching faculty can easily identify institutions at which particular members teach with complete contact information
- Academics seeking information on other scholars can quickly locate institutions and departmental affiliations
- School administrators can easily locate faculty by specialty
- And many others
