AUTHORITATIVE, PEER-REVIEWED ARTICLES

For decades, the New Catholic Encyclopedia has been prized for its presentation of persons and subjects related to Catholicism and the humanities.

Now, in partnership with the Catholic University of America, New Catholic Encyclopedia continues its tradition of scholarly excellence.

SUPPLEMENT 2010: MODERN HISTORY AND THE CHURCH

The new Supplement 2010 focuses on the WWII years and beyond. It includes about 200 entries on men and women who have been beatified or canonized since 2003.

Most of the beatified are new entries – those not appearing in the 2nd edition – while the saints' entries are largely revised and updated from the 2nd edition. This supplement has more new entries than those that have been revised or updated.

Supplement 2010 complements these supplements:

- Jubilee Volume: The Wojtyla Years (2000). Designed as a supplement to New Catholic Encyclopedia, 1st Ed., Jubilee Volume focuses on the pontificate of John Paul II. The supplement includes thematic essays that present the man and his work, covering "The Papacy of John Paul II," "Church Documents," "People and Places," "Institutions and Events," and "Saints and Blessed"
- Supplement 2009. The original, peer-reviewed articles in Supplement 2009 explore two timely and enduring themes: "The Church and Science" and "The Church in the United States"

FUTURE SUPPLEMENTS:

- Supplement 2011: Literature, Music and the Arts
- Supplement 2012: Philosophy and Ethics

ABOUT NEW CATHOLIC ENCYCLOPEDIA

Since 1967, New Catholic Encyclopedia, cited by Library Journal as one of the top 50 reference sources of the millennium, has been a standard in public, academic and school libraries worldwide.

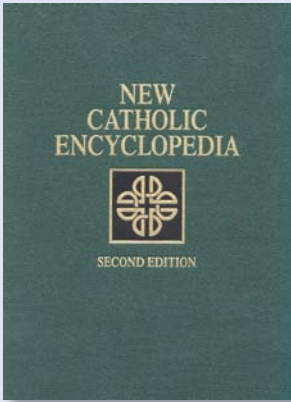

For countless readers and researchers over the years, New Catholic Encyclopedia is the first place to turn for insightful information on topics from abortion and divorce to witchcraft and tolerance. The second edition, published in 2002 by Gale, was the first major revision of this work in 30 years.

Updated in 15 volumes, the second edition features contributions from hundreds of scholars around the world, under the guidance of Catholic University of America's Rev. Berard Marthaler, O.F.M.Conv., as well as Gale.
