The InfoTrac Web difference

InfoTrac Web gives your library a single point of access to the InfoTrac family of reference solutions and other publishers' products. But while some systems rob you of critical paths to the data, InfoTrac Web unleashes the full power of each database by carefully adapting the InfoTrac interface to work with its unique content and indexing. So as the information hub for your campus or community, you can provide the full value of these resources—through one interface, and one powerful solution.

InfoTrac Web delivers it all — seamless searching and optimal results

Intuitive, flexible and powerful, the InfoTrac interface makes Books in Print and Books in Print with Book Reviews a truly self-service database for your users. It features:

- A dual-mode interface, including Advanced Search, that helps users quickly pinpoint exactly what they need to answer their questions, whether they start with a general or precise idea of what to search
- Easy linking between magazines, newspaper articles and reference books
- Superior indexing and a vast controlled vocabulary to aid searchers in locating relevant information without the aggravation of hunting for one exact term
- Customizable search options that you configure and control
- InfoTrac InfoMarks<sup>SM</sup> — users can copy and paste URLs enabling them to save, re-use and share search results
- Many “See” and “See Also” references to guide patrons to similar or related topics
