

Research Centers Directory

Now online on Gale Directory Library

Available Dec. 07 For more than 45 years, Research Centers Directory has been the premier resource for information on North America's nonprofit research organizations. The most comprehensive guide of its kind, Research Centers Directory covers the programs, staffing, publications and services of more than 14,800 laboratories, institutes, experiment stations, farms, support facilities, technology transfer centers, think tanks and other centers. It also includes research-support units that operate as separate entities, such as statistical laboratories, survey centers, information retrieval facilities and some museums.

These nonprofit research organizations cover all fields of endeavor, including government and public affairs; physical and earth sciences; environment and conservation; business and economics; medicine and life sciences; religion; engineering and technology; social sciences; humanities; and many others. Detailed entries typically include: name; full contact information, including address, phone, fax, Web site URL and e-mail address; date founded; description of activities; annual budget and revenue; number of staff; financial support; research focus; resources; databases and publications; educational activities; annual meetings; scholarships and awards offered; memberships; library holdings; names of officers and administrators; and more.

Real-world applications might include:

- Graduate students in physics can compile a list of research centers that focus on specific subjects and provide educational opportunities
- Medical professionals can easily locate regional research centers and identify their resources and publications
- Business professionals can identify cutting-edge technology research centers and quickly compile a list of detailed contact information
- And many others

ABOUT GALE DIRECTORY LIBRARY

With Gale Directory Library, researchers can use state-of-the-art functionality to perform a range of data sorting, filtering and exporting. These innovative features, unlike anything seen previously from our directories, make Gale Directory Library the essential tool for research.

- Find contacts — Finding a company, person, publication (or other kind of entity) is easy. Basic search lets users quickly look up names, search by keyword, and browse the full text of your directory holdings.
- Generate lists, analyze trends — Export search results and use them in programs like Excel or Word, making the creation of mailing lists a snap.
- Cross-searchable — Search across our growing number of directory titles. Each directory can be searched individually by its own unique data fields, or search the entire directory collection.
