

Scribner Writers and Twayne's Authors Online Now in eReference (GVRL) Format!

To ensure your library can provide the best online resources in the most powerful and flexible format Gale-Cengage Learning is moving Scribner Writers and Twayne's Authors resources from database format to the Gale Virtual Reference Library (GVRL) eBook platform. This change offers access to these award-winning titles with all of the robust functionality available on Gale's GVRL platform, including improved citation tools such as MLA 7, content language translation, enhanced search options, improved print, email and download functions and ReadSpeaker technology. By using the new Literature Resources from Gale platform Scribner Writers and Twayne's Authors can be cross-searched with Literature Resource Center, LitFinder, For Students Online, and the MLA International Bibliography. The database format of these resources will expire later this Summer.

SCRIBNER WRITERS ONLINE

Taken in its entirety, the Scribner literature line provides students, teachers, and other researchers access to more than 2,000 original, comprehensive, scholar-signed essays on the lives and works of more than 1,400 important authors from around the world and from all time periods. Each entry averages 15-20 pages in length and includes a concise essay and biographical information that places the author's work in personal and historical context.

NOW featured in the new GVRL eBook edition:

- World Poets
- British Writers Classics
- American Writers Classics
- Latino and Latina Writers
- And more...

TWAYNE'S AUTHORS ONLINE

For more than half a century, Twayne's Authors has offered concise critical introductions to the lives and works of writers, to the history and influence of literary movements, and to the development of literary traditions. Twayne's Authors Online now includes nearly 900 books of approximately 175 to 200 pages each. Researchers can quickly find targeted results by searching for a specific author or exploring thematic and chronological topics.
